NAZARENE MISSIONS INTERNATIONAL

13 September 2023

Asia-Pacific Region

Hong Kong (SAR)

Hong Kong was occupied by the British in 1841 and was formally ceded by China the following year. On 19 December 1984, an agreement signed by China and the UK set in motion a shift which eventually led to Hong Kong becoming the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (SAR) of the Republic of China, on 1 July 1997. This special arrangement was meant to provide autonomy to Hong Kong in all matters, except foreign affairs and defense, that would last for 50 years. Hong Kong has become a financial capital in Eastern Asia. The work of the Church of the Nazarene was officially begun in 1974.

NMI SNAPSHOT

Where are the nations for our “making Christlike disciples in the nations”? Often, we may think of global missions or the people who are like us in our neighborhoods. But the nations are moving into our neighborhood! The International Church of the Nazarene (ICN) is a Filipino congregation in Hong Kong. Rev. Elma Mago faithfully shepherded the ICN church for 26 years. She cared for hundreds of Filipino Overseas Workers (OFW) who come to Hong Kong to work as domestic helpers, greeting these women as they arrive at the airport, providing COVID quarantine care packages, and a place to gather on Sundays.

Many of the members of ICN are not long-term residents of Hong Kong, only staying to work a few years before moving away. Rev. Mago has sought to equip and send these women to be disciple-makers. In her 40+ years of ministry, Rev Mago has equipped 4 women pastors, 4 pastor’s wives (which is an important ministry role in the Filipino culture), and many Sunday school teachers and other church leaders.

This year, Rev. Mago retired and moved back to the Philippines, where she planted a church in her first month of retirement! As for ICN, Rev. Mago was succeeded by one of her disciples. Pastor Janet Olaviaga originally came to Hong Kong as a domestic helper, accepted a call to ministry at ICN, returned to the Philippines for Bible College and has now returned to Hong Kong as the pastor of ICN. In March 2023, Pastor Janet was given her first district license by the Hong Kong District.

Among the millions of Chinese residents of Hong Kong, God is doing an incredible work among Filipino migrant workers through the Church of the Nazarene. The nations are in our neighborhoods!
